Styrian Blood

The naked and battered body of journalist Eva Kovac is found in the woods. Sandra Mohr, departmental inspector of the LKA in Graz, is not at all excited that this mysterious murder in the Styrian Krakau is allotted to her. After all she didn't turn her back on her home for nothing. Sandra has tried hard to leave her roots behind, but her past keeps haunting her. She has to confront the domineering landlady Mizzi, her good-natured son Michl and his devout fiancé Franziska as well as her own family.

Claudia Rossbacher, born in Vienna, she became a copywriter and a creative director for several international publicity agencies. Since 2006 she has been working as a freelance author in Vienna and published a number of crime novels and short stories. „Styrian Blood“, her first crime novel set in the Alps, has been turned into a movie by Wolfgang Murnberger and is broadcast on ORF in 2014. Like Sandra Mohrs first case, the follow ups too made the Austrian bestselling lists for several months. The author was awarded the „Buchliebbling 2014“ for the fourth volume „Styrian Cross“.
